College Corner

It's time to start looking at what colleges you may be interested in applying to next year.

College Search Tips

- Log into CCGI to explore and favorite colleges.
- Consider if a college is a safe, target, or dream school and if they offer your intended major.
- Evaluate your eligibility (GPA, A-G) and the availability of supportive programs and resources (tutoring, mental health, career counseling).
- Visit campuses, talk to students and faculty, and explore extracurricular activities.
- Take your time to research and reflect on what matters most to you in a college.

Good luck with your college search!
